Hidden Dangers: W.A.T.C.H.'s 2025 Most Hazardous Toys to Watch For

Holiday shopping is officially underway, and while browsing toys is usually the fun part of the season, there's an important reality that families should keep in mind: some toys pose real safety hazards — even when they're sold in mainstream stores.

Every year, the nonprofit World Against Toys Causing Harm (W.A.T.C.H.) releases its "10 Worst Toys" list to help parents, grandparents, and caregivers avoid products linked to serious injuries. Their 2025 list is out, and it highlights toys that may seem harmless but can cause choking, ingestion injuries, suffocation, eye injuries, and more.

Keeping You Safe This Holiday Season

The holidays are a time for celebration, family, and giving—but also a time when accidents and injuries may occur. Between slippery sidewalks, busy roads, and crowded shopping centers, hazards are everywhere.

At Galfand Berger, our experienced personal injury attorneys have seen how quickly a joyful holiday can take a dangerous turn. That's why we're sharing important holiday safety tips to help you and your family enjoy a safe and stress-free season.

Galfand Berger Supports WMMR's Camp Out for Hunger

Each Thanksgiving season, Galfand Berger, LLP is proud to support 93.3 WMMR's Camp Out for Hunger, the largest single-location food drive in the world. Now in its 28th year, this incredible community event continues to make a lasting impact on families across the region.

This year, the attorneys and legal professionals at Galfand Berger came together once again to help fight hunger in our community. We're proud to share that Galfand Berger donated 913 pounds of food to support the campaign's mission of providing nutritious meals for individuals and families facing food insecurity. Since our firm started participating in this food drive, we have donated over 10,000 pounds of food!
