

Halloween Safety

Top 5 Halloween Safety Tips

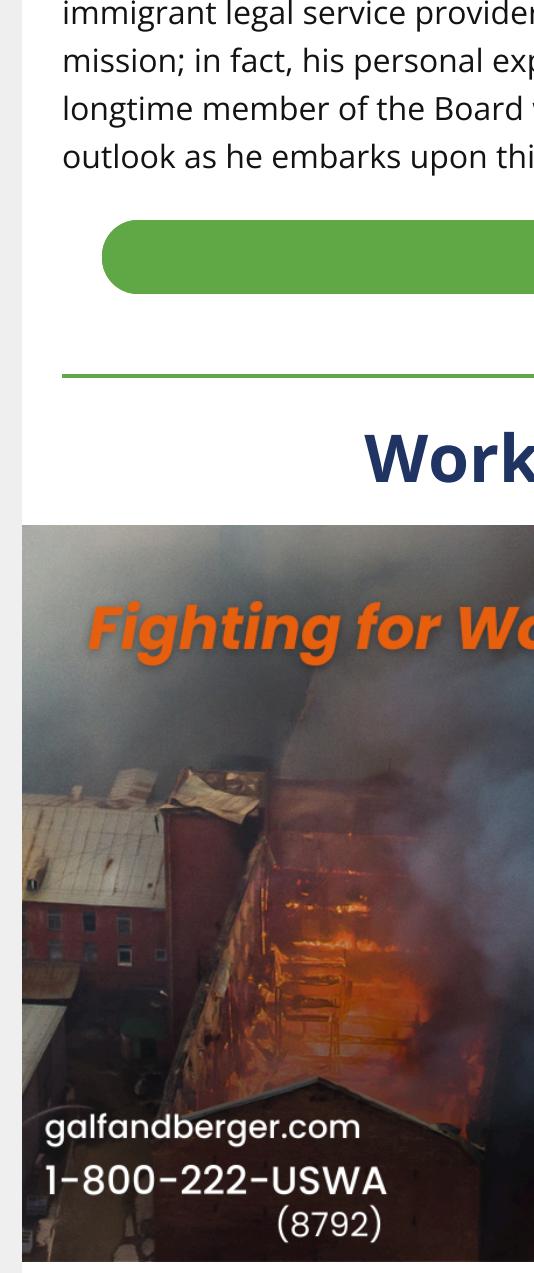

- Stay visible with reflective tape, glow sticks, or flashlights.
- Cross at corners and make eye contact with drivers.
- Kids under 12 should trick-or-treat with an adult.
- Drivers: slow down, stay alert, and watch for kids (5:30-9:30 p.m.).
- Choose safe, well-fitting, flame-resistant costumes.

Congratulations, Farhan!

Farhan Ali, Esq.
PARTNER

Farhan Ali Appointed as Board President at HIAS Pennsylvania

Our firm is proud to announce that Partner Farhan Ali was just appointed to serve as President of the Board for HIAS Pennsylvania. HIAS PA is one of the largest non-profit immigrant legal service providers in the state. Farhan is no stranger to HIAS PA's mission; in fact, his personal experience as an immigrant as well as his history as a longtime member of the Board will undoubtedly afford him a unique and nuanced outlook as he embarks upon this new leadership role.

Workplace Explosions

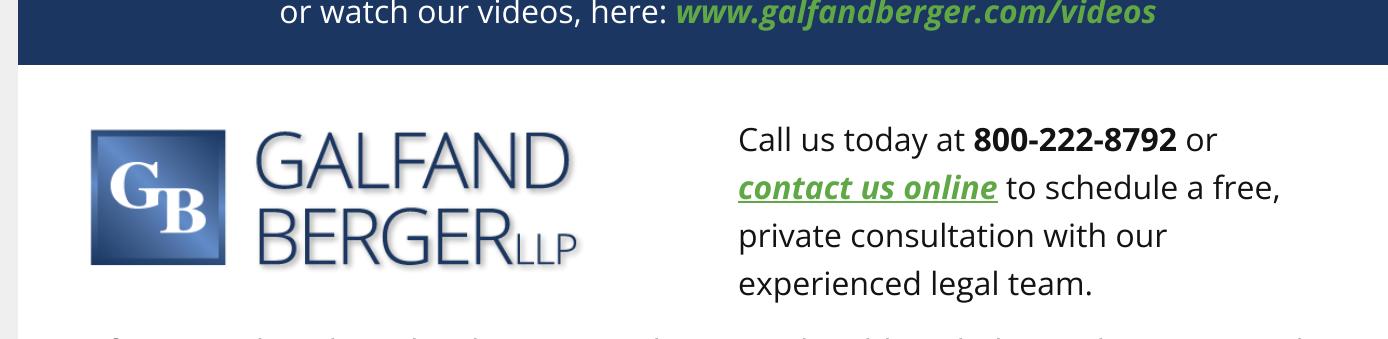

Deadly Workplace Explosions

In 2023, a natural gas leak from a faulty pipe fitting caused a deadly explosion at the R.M. Palmer Company factory in West Reading, Pennsylvania, killing seven workers and injuring dozens. Just months ago, there was yet another catastrophic occupational incident; preliminary findings indicate that the explosion at the U.S. Steel Clairton Coke Works plant outside of Pittsburgh, PA, which killed two workers and injured 10, resulted from a gas valve failure that occurred during maintenance.

SEPTA Accidents

What Are My Legal Options After a SEPTA-Related Accident?

The Southeastern Pennsylvania Transportation Authority (SEPTA) operates one of the largest public transit systems in the country. Every day, buses, trolleys, subways, and commuter trains move thousands of Philadelphians to work, school, and social activities.

In recent years, crashes involving SEPTA vehicles have increased, with multiple incidents causing serious injuries and fatalities. Most recently, in September 2025, two pedestrians were struck and killed by SEPTA trains — one in Delaware County and another in Philadelphia's East Falls neighborhood. Despite safety initiatives, SEPTA accidents continue to occur frequently and often result in severe consequences.
